What is it? ✦

Girly Pop Dublin is a walking tour where the city's history gets spilled like the hottest tea in the group chat: scandals, mysteries and the women history tried to skip, all told by a host with the drama turned up.

A built-in photographer poses you along the route (photo package at the end), and the walk finishes with a glittery Guinness, with an alcohol-free option for anyone who wants it.

Who it's for ♡

- Solo women who want a fun, social way to see Dublin
- The girls, the gays and the theys: LGBTQ+ travellers very welcome
- Hens and birthdays looking for something a bit different

Who's behind it ✦

Chloe Schmid is the founder of Girly Pop Tours Europe, which already runs in Rome and now comes to Dublin. She'll be at World Travel Market London, 3 to 5 Nov 2026.

Girly Pop Tours Europe Limited is an Irish registered company.

The route: Trinity College to Dublin Castle ✦

1. Trinity College: Wilde, Stoker and Swift all came through these gates
2. College Green: the parliament that voted itself out of existence, then became a bank
3. Molly Malone: Dublin's most famous woman may never have existed
4. Duke Street and Powerscourt: picked for the photos, obviously
5. St Stephen's Green: Countess Markievicz, from ballgowns to a revolver in 1916
6. Merrion Square: Oscar Wilde's childhood home and those Georgian doors
7. Dublin Castle: Bram Stoker's old desk job, and the Crown Jewels that vanished in 1907
- ✦ The finale: a glittery Guinness (alcohol-free option too) and a group photo

What's included ♡
